

>> Setting Sail with MARUM <<

Join us as we welcome our newest colleagues aboard!

Meet our latest additions to the MARUM crew as they introduce themselves and their previous research, as well as their plans and goals for their work at MARUM.

This event is a chance to explore the diverse expertise within our research centre, foster collaboration, and chart new paths together as we embark on future discoveries.

Next wave: Thursday, 30 October 2025 at 09.30 hrs.
in the Pacific Ocean room (Center for Deep-Sea Research)
